

European Network for Accreditation of Engineering Education

World Engineers' Convention WEC 2011

Genève, 4-9 September 2011

Wednesday 7 September 2011

EDUCATING ENGINEERS FOR SUSTAINABLE PROGRESS: THE RELEVANCE OF ACCREDITATION

A Session promoted by ENAAE

with the collaboration of IFEES

Programme

10.00-13.00: Exhibition/distribution of informative and promotional material; free exchanges with the Session promoters.

13.30: Session Opening & Welcome Speeches

14.00-15.30: Keynote Lectures (and discussion):

1. Claudio Borri, Professor of Structural Engineering in the University of Florence, founding President of IFEES: "Engineering Education going global: academic networking and international cooperation vs. great challenges on renewable energy sources" (co-authors: M.Betti, E.Guberti)
2. Ekrem Ekinci, Professor in the Department of Chemical Engineering, Istanbul Technical University: "How are higher education quality systems in engineering coping with the global warming issue?"

15.30-16.30: Round Table

Chair: Iring Wasser, Vice-President of ENAAE

Panellists:

- Cindy Eggs, Project leader EUR-ACE implementation Switzerland
- Peter Greenwood, WFEO Ex. Council, Leader CET WG Mobility of Engineering Professionals
- R. Natarajan, Former Chairman, All India Council for Technical Education, India
- Jan Willem Proper, Chairman, European Monitoring Committee, FEANI
- R. N. Shetty, President, Indian Society for Technical Education, India

16.30: Open discussion

17.00: Session Closure = WEC Closing Ceremony

Steering committee:

Jean-Claude Arditti, Giuliano Augusti (coordinator), Pierre Compte, Cindy Eggs, Hasan Mandal, Erbil Payzin, Philippe Wauters.